

A. W. AUNER, SONG PUBLISHER & PRINTER,
Tenth and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa. .

DANCING IN THE BARN

MUSIC BY T. TURNER.

WORDS BY A. MCKEE

Music published by G. Mollineux, 44 Fourth Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
By sending him 40 Cents he will send you the Music of this Song.

Oh! we'll meet at de ball in de evening,
Kase I love to pass de time away,
Wid Clemintina Consitina,
And my Angemima Mina May.
Den we'll balance all to one another
Like de ship dat's going round de horn,
Dar we'll meet you, yes we'll greet you,
While dancing in the barn.

As we move so gracefully, we're happy as can be,
Den swing your partners all together,
Kase now's the time for you to learn,
Music, singing, niggers singing and dancing in the barn.

Den we's off to work in the morning,
Singing as we go out to the field,
Picking cotton, all else forgotten,
Except to see how much de ground do yield.
De black folks are happy while together,
It's funny for to hear them tell a yarn,
About a lover with kisses smother,
While dancing in the barn.

As we move so gracefully, we're happy as can be,
Den swing your partners all together,
Kase now's the time for you to learn,
Music, singing, niggers singing and dancing in the barn.

A. W. AUNER'S
CARD AND JOB PRINTING ROOMS,
Tenth and Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.